

70 PROPERTY

The Australian Financial Review
Friday 1 August 2008 • www.afr.com

Storage centres added

Queensland's National Storage has spent $1.7 million to buy three storage centres in Tasmania. The centres, in the Hobart suburbs of Moonah, Mornington and Montrose, will add 10,700 sq m of space to National Storage's operations. The acquisitions increase the number of businesses operated by National Storage nationwide to 60, with about 290,000 square metres of net lettable space.

Lisa Allen